If you are looking for a comfortable home with plenty of outdoor space in a peaceful setting, this villa in Macisvenda, Murcia could be an excellent choice, whether as a permanent residence or as your own home in Spain.

The property stands on a 1,000 m² urban plot, fully fenced and with both pedestrian and vehicle access.

The house offers approximately 120 m² of living space and is in excellent condition, ready to move into.

A spacious and practical home

Inside, you will find 3 spacious bedrooms, one bathroom, a fitted kitchen and a large living and dining room with a fireplace, creating a particularly welcoming atmosphere during the cooler months.

The property also includes a utility room and a pleasant covered porch, perfect for making the most of the local climate and enjoying outdoor living.

The aluminium windows are fitted with iron security bars.

Urban plot with all essential services

One of the main advantages of this property is that it is situated on urban land. The property benefits from the main urban services:

Mains water, mains electricity, mains drainage, street lighting and refuse collection.

All this is located in Macisvenda, a peaceful village in the Region of Murcia, surrounded by the characteristic countryside of inland Spain and close to the province of Alicante.

An ideal property for those looking for space, tranquillity and a home that is ready to enjoy, while still benefiting from the convenience of urban services.
